

I strongly oppose the plc sourvice because i am not convinced that ham radio opperators will not be subject to powerline interference. i lived on a college campus once and i know all about powerline interference.